WASHINGTON – Congressman Spencer Bachus (AL-6) issued the following statement on tonight's State of the Union Address by President Obama.

"We do need policies that will create jobs and help families struggling to make ends meet in these times of economic uncertainty. However, more government spending and borrowing isn't the answer. Taxpayers can't afford it and government has never solved a problem by throwing more money at it."