Congressman Spencer Bachus sent the following letter to U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Director Lisa Jackson to express opposition to proposed greenhouse gas regulations that would conduct “an end-run around both the legislative and judicial process.” Bachus is a cosponsor of a House resolution that expresses disapproval of the regulation and its pending implementation.

To view the letter, click here.