WASHINGTON (July 1) – The National Computer Forensics Institute in Hoover is featured in the new edition of Congressman Spencer Bachus' e-newsletter.

The House Financial Services Committee, which Congressman Bachus chairs, held a field hearing on Wednesday, June 29 at the Institute to hear expert witnesses describe cybercrime. The e-newsletter includes testimony, photographs, and video from the hearing.

To read the e-newsletter and sign up to receive future editions, click here.