

MONTEVALLO- Congressman Spencer Bachus spoke at the American Village on Monday during a ceremony attended by the Architect of the United States Capitol and Governor Bob Riley. Capitol Architect Alan Hantman presented a cornerstone to the American Village made of original marble from the United States Capitol Building. Congressman Bachus spoke about the importance of preserving liberty for all generations following with the traditions started by the founders of our country.