

WASHINGTON-Congressman Spencer Bachus is proud to congratulate William Long of Oak Mountain High School on his achievement. The NFIB Education Foundation, which recognizes high school seniors who have demonstrated entrepreneurial achievement with a $1000 scholarship, recently named him one of 110 national winners. "William Long represents the next generation of Americans whose contributions will be felt for years to come", Congressman Bachus said.