

WASHINGTON-Congressman Spencer Bachus is proud to announce that Birmingham International Airport will be adding non-stop service to Orlando. Delta Connection carrier Chautauqua Airlines will operate the service with Embracer regional jets. "Orlando is Florida's most popular destination, it makes sense that we have a direct flight from Birmingham", Congressman Bachus said. "Birmingham is growing, and Birmingham International should grow with the city."

Congressman Bachus is a member of the Transportation Committee.