

In letters to the Federal Emergency Management Agency and the Alabama Emergency Management Association dated December 7, Congressman Bachus said the construction of community storm shelters should be a priority in preparing for future tornadoes and severe storms.

To view Congressman Bachus' letter to FEMA Administrator Craig Fugate, click here.

To view Congressman Bachus' letter to AMEA Director Art Faulkner, click here .