

WASHINGTON (July 22) – Congressman Spencer Bachus (AL-6) was interviewed on C.J.’s Home Protection Act and tornado safety on the Weather Channel today.

Bachus introduced C.J.’s Home Protection Act to improve tornado safety by equipping new manufactured housing with NOAA weather radios. The legislation was approved by the House Financial Services Committee, which Congressman Bachus chairs, on Wednesday.

To view an excerpt of Congressman Bachus’ interview on “Wake Up With Al” with Al Roker, click here.

To view an excerpt of Congressman Bachus’ interview on “Your Weather Today” with Jennifer Carfagno and Mike Bettes, click here.

To read about the legislation, click here.